Reverend Lincoln M. Burruss Jr. was born in Washington, D.C. and is one of three children. He is married to the former Angela Greenfield and is also the father of three children—Jada, Jalynn, and Javon.

Rev. Burruss graduated from D.C. Public School and attended the University of the District of Columbia where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Electrical Engineering. He attended the Maple Springs Baptist Seminary and is currently pursuing a Master's Degree in Divinity and a Doctorate Degree in Biblical Studies at Trinity Theological Seminary.

In August 1991, Rev. Burruss became a licensed minister and was ordained several years later. In 2008, he was appointed to the role of Assistant Pastor at Central Baptist Church of Camp Springs. In April 2012, he became Pastor-Elect following the death of the beloved Pastor Rev. John H. Parker; June 2012, he was installed as the pastor.

Reverend Burruss is the Past-President of the Mount Bethel Baptist Educational Congress (2012-2016), and a certified teacher of the Congress. He is also an active member of the Progressive National Baptist Convention (PNBC), Baptist Convention of DC and Vicinity, The Missionary Baptist Ministers Conference of DC and Vicinity, and The Temple Hills Coalition of Pastors.
